

Swiss Nightlife Award 2017: the top three

On 30 January, the eighth Swiss Nightlife Award will once again honour DJs, promoters, bars and clubs that have had a significant impact on Swiss nightlife.

Over the past few weeks, night owls and party-goers have been voting for their favourites in ten of the twelve categories. Voting has now closed, and the top three for each category have been selected.

There are a few new faces among them: the Wundertüte, Lethargy, Mystica and Terrazza Horse Park Festival events in Zurich, the Basel-based DJ duo Goldfinger Brothers, the U Bar in Vaud and the Widder Garage in Zurich are all new to the top three.

But there are also some old hands in the mix: the Zurich duo Adriatique, nominated in the 'Best Electronica DJ' category, already took home prizes in the same category in 2014 and 2015, and clubs like the Plaza in Zurich or D! in Vaud have also already won two Golden Owls each. Absolut Techno and Polaris Festival are hoping to earn their second Owl this year – both won their first award last year. DJ Cruz from Zurich and Luciano from Geneva, as well as locations such as Raygrodski, Mascotte, Nordstern, Hive and the Montreux Jazz Festival, are all in with a chance of adding to their collection of Golden Owls this year. Nachtseminar, We Love Techno, Rundfunk.fm, EDX, Nora en Pure and Animal Trainer, as well as Openair Frauenfeld and Zürich Openair, are all looking to take home their first award – though none are strangers to the top three.

The winners of the White Owl Award and the Lifetime Award are not selected by public voting, but are chosen by the Swiss Nightlife Award Academy and will be announced on the night of the ceremony.
